RILEY WILL CASE!

The First-Written Document is Admitted to Probate.

DISTRIBUTION OF THE ESTATE.

By the consent of the parties in the suit of Sallie Longnecker and others vs. J. D. Riley, in the master of the court of the wills of the late George Riley, the facts were submitted to the Circuit Court and Judge Harboone decided that the will of said George Riley dated June 21st, 1888, with codicil thereto dated June 21st, 1890, be admitted as the true will of said decedent, and that a subsequent will dated December 22d, 1891, and which was admitted to probate by the County Court, be reversed and set aside.

The will admitted to record by order of the Circuit Court is as follows:

1. George Riley of the County of Mason and state of Kentucky, make and appoint this my last will and testament, revoking all former wills:

I give and bequeath to Benjamin Longnecker, in trust for my son George Riley and his wife, Sallie, one-half of my farm upon which I reside, which contains about 90 acres.

I also give to said Longnecker, to said son George and the heirs of his body, $6,000.

I give and bequeath to Benjamin Longnecker, in trust for my daughter Elizabeth and the heirs of her body, $6,000.

At either George or Elizabeth should die during my life, or if leaving no valid issue, then what I have here given to the one dying, or if both should die during my life, then given to the other, to be divided among any heirs which may have accumulated from unused rent and interest, to the children of my body, Sallie Longnecker.

I give and bequeath the debts and the above-named bequests, I give the residue of my estate to my other three children, Jacob D. Riley, Samuel S. Riley and Mary Longnecker, to be divided among them in equal shares.

I appoint Jacob D. Riley, Samuel S. Riley and Benjamin Longnecker Executors of this will without bond.

Written with my own hand and signed by me this 21st day of June, 1898.

GEORGE RILEY,
W. M. MATTHEWS,
S. H. MITCHELL.

Since the execution of my will above, my son Samuel S. Riley has departed this life, and my will is that his widow, Mary G. Riley, shall share with her two children that part of my estate which I have not given by this will. I will and give to her one-half to be part to be absolutely hers, her two children to have and take one of the two-thirds of that part equally.

Written my hand and name this 21st day of June, 1898.

GEORGE RILEY.

Following the judgment of the Court the heirs have mutually agreed upon a distribution of the estate, which amounts to $79,911.52, the sum given to each heir as follows:

Benjamin Longnecker $4,800.00
George R. Longnecker 5,800.00
Elizabeth Riley 5,800.00
Elizabeth Longnecker, Trustee of George Riley 5,800.00
Jacob D. Riley 5,800.00
Mary Riley, widow of S. S. Riley 8,210.63
Mary Longnecker, widow of S. S. Riley 10,607.90
Mary Riley, Guardian of Leslie D. Riley 15,807.90
Sally Longnecker 15,807.90
Total 73,701.43

The agreement is signed by all the heirs and the settlement is final.

WE'RE FOR AMERICA! AMERICANS!

It was far-sighted General Grant who originated the aphorism, "The surest way to get rid of a bad law is to enforce it." Therefore, let us have a rigid application of "Civil Service reform" in a Master CLEVELAND.

The Democratic papers are trying mighty hard to bolster up the silly story that Governor BRADLEY has gone or will go into a combination to defeat Dr. HUNTER. Governor BRADLEY has done and will do no such foolish thing. Like every other true Republican, he is for the nominee of the caucus.

The Administration of President McKinley will give the country a Protective Tariff. Meanwhile Master CLEVELAND's Free-trade Consuls will continue to hold their places throughout the world, as their "great and good friend" nailed their places down with a Civil Service spike. And being Free-traders, these Consuls will naturally do all they can to cripple President McKinley's policy and his Administration.

Many people wanted "Gentleman Jim" CORBETT to whip JOHN L. SCILLIAN, simply because the latter was a big, blustering blackguard. He did it, and soon became as noted a "duffer" as SCILLIAN himself. Now that FITZSIMMONS has beaten CORBETT, the point is that someone may break the victor's neck with a club and put an end to the succession of professional brutes.

Mr. GAGE, the new Secretary of the Treasury, has given the office-seekers a practical illustration of his Civil Service policy. In filling the vacancy caused by the death of Judge REED of Kentucky he promoted a Clerk in the Department, instead of asking to have the place exempted from competitive examination. It goes without saying that the Clerk was a Democrat, and therefore the only person competent to hold the place. Republicans have no right to expect office as long as any of Master CLEVELAND's Democratic appointees are willing to fill the places.

Dr. J. C. Stoen, a well-known Dr. Ripley, and Miss Sallie, daughter of Mr. Jackson Lawhill of Manchester, were married Wednesday.

The Seventeenth Annual Commencement of the Manchester High School will be held Thursday evening, April 15th. There will be eighteen graduates.

A full line of Novelties, and the latest styles of Millinery just opened by Miss Anna Frazar, 207 Court street, second door from State National Bank. Goods new, artistic and of latest style. Satisfaction guaranteed. Will make up and price guaranteed. Will appreciate patronage of all old friends as well as public generally. Call and inquire.

DIED YESTERDAY.

Mr. Lake Farrow Passed Away at His Home in the County.

Mr. Lake Farrow, aged 32 years, son of the late Champ Farrow, died yesterday morning at 5 o'clock at his residence between Orangeburg and Mt. Gilead, after an illness of some three or four months of consumption.

He leaves a wife—who was Miss Nannie Wallingford—and three children, one girl and two boys. His mother and one sister—Mrs. William Terry of Lexington—also survive.

The funeral will occur this afternoon at 3 o'clock from his late residence; burial in the family burying ground.

A Valued Correspondent's View of the Duck-Hunting Administration.

Duck hunting has had great honor put upon it.

Duck hunting now has a National reputation.

We suppose Mr. Cleveland may now be considered a "dead duck."

We understand the key to all those duck hunts was "whiskey."

No wonder duck hunting was so fascinating with "John Barleycorn" as companion.

What occasion had the Government to turn the means of locomotion for the last duck hunt?

There's nothing man or woman about duck hunting unless perchance the ducks should fly too high.

Mr. Cleveland in his duck hunting craze poked something after the fashion of the monkey climbing the pole.

We don't know whether duck hunting alone pays; but when it goes partnership with the Presidency it's not to be sneezed at.

How would it do for the Democracy to take up the duck as their National emblem, and discard the noble bird under which they went down in defeat?

Mr. Cleveland has "feathered his nest" so well during his duck hunting Administration that it will not be necessary for him again to hang people for a living.

Some men are born great; others achieve greatness, while others still have greatness thrust upon them. To which of these shall our distinguished duck hunter be charged?

Don't fail to place your "ad" in THE LEDGER if you want the most for your money.

UNDER WATER.

Heavy Rains in the South and West Swell the Rivers.

In Some Localities the Flood is the Highest Ever Known.

Many Levees Giving Way and the Non-rooding Country Inundated—Frogs of the Greatest Flood on Record at Nashville.

GAVIN, Ark., March 30.—The water rose two inches yesterday night. For most of the day yesterday, flooded, the water is up to the Iron Mountain tracks. Hundreds of section hands are striving to keep the water back with dirt bags. At every station the Negro types of labor are to be seen to be swept away. Many get on the trains as carried without pay. Superintendent Roe, of the Iron Mountain, has given orders that none are to be put on the trains.

The list of fatalities is enormous and probably will never be known.

Mr. Middleton, who arrived here with his family from New Rosedale, and a few miles from the scene of the report of the death of a woman and five children Wednesday night. The water came up, and though the unfortunate climbed on the table and chairs, the flood finally reached over their heads.

William Cartwright and William Cox, working on Judge Hodge's farm at Rosedale, lost their lives this day. They were in a dugout waiting for stock and the current swept the dugout. Cartwright could not swim and Cox tried to save him, but both perished.

Jack Carter lost his life at Gavin Thursday night. His dugout was upset by rushing water. His companion, Sterling, was saved by climbing a tree.

Amanda Chapman, an old colored woman, just arrived from below, reported the death of six persons she could not name. A father tried to save his wife, who was a dugout, and he drowned, throwing the water killed others in the house.

Charles Hurley was drowned while trying to save his home Thursday night near Gavin. He could not manage a dugout.

A mountain of household goods piled up at every railroad station. Whites and Negroes beg for help from every train crew, who are about as bad as the water. Many corsets and castings in the fields with only their heads above water. Many corsets of hogs and cows are washed up by the water.

Nashville, Tenn., March 30.—The Cumberland river Friday morning registered 40 feet on the gauge. Rain fell all day Thursday, all Thursday night and continued to come down incessantly. The water is now at the height of the greatest flood on record.

The highest recorded water in the Cumberland was in 1883, when it registered 55 feet, 9 inches, now the water is about 50 feet, and is expected to exceed.

Much damage has already resulted from the overflow in the lowland, and more will follow when the flood increases.

Large sections of East Nashville have been under water for several days. The river is already climbing to the business houses on Front street. Books are now anchored to the sidewalks, and the prospects are that the first floors of the building will be submerged.

Dispatches from the southern counties of Tennessee and from northern Alabama report a height of 40 feet and terrible damage in that region. Great damage has been done to bridges and fences. Trains have stopped running on the Nashville, Florence & Sherman, and the Memphis & St. Louis.

Hixson, Ark., March 30.—The river at noon was within two inches of the highest water on record here. The sun shone bright and the water was clear, though the heavy and downpours of the past few days, and conditions are more hopeful. The observer here says that from the looks of things above he would not attempt to cross the river, and urges all people to the lowlands to move out to higher ground.

The levees in front and north of the city are having the attention of the people in the city and the levee banks and the banks are being raised and strengthened. Heavy rains Friday and Thursday nights have partly inundated a portion of the northern suburbs of the city, but the water is now out of the roads.

A report from Modoc Friday morning is to the effect that the levees are still holding, although a report Thursday night at the river front said that they would not be held until this time. A reporter who returned from there Friday morning says that, with the recent rains, the already large army or levee workers, there is now a bright outlook for the safety of the levees, but if the water continues to rise it does not look possible, as there is but 15 to 18 inches clear water in a great many places. The water on the Mississippi appears to be in good shape, and as they have plenty of men and money and no comparatively new levees to look after, it is hardly possible there will be a break on that side.

Milwaukee, Wis., March 30.—The heavy rainfall during the day and part of the evening caused the Menominee river to overflow its banks. Friday night a swollen, some miles distant from Milwaukee, and from a point at Fort Verde street and Mount Vernon avert, is the river's height, for a distance of ten blocks is submerged. The water at midnight was 8 to 9 feet deep and is still rising. About 150 small houses are located in the district, and many of them have been reported. The work of removing the victims of the flood has been going on all evening, the veterans of the National Soldiers' Home helping with small boats. At 9 o'clock the Milwaukee police department was asked for help and a boat was sent out. The men in the boat were not able to get out, so they were taken out in the gauge of the flood by the fire department. The men were working on the bridge at night.

Chicago, Ill., March 30.—The Lake Michigan shore is higher than any since the floods of 1881. All railroads communication except over the Illinois Central south of Omaha is out of service. Three large bridges have washed out between Elkhorn and Sioux City. Wagons bridges are generally swept away and all communication east is cut off. The people sought the highlands and much hay and grain on the bottoms are destroyed.

THE FLOOD SITUATION

to the Victoria of Sioux City, Ia. Wrote.

Sioux City, Ia., March 30.—Though many of Thursday night's reports of the flood were not confirmed Friday, the actual situation is growing worse. The Floyd river had carried out every bridge from Lemers, two miles above Sioux City, and is still rising. The town of Merrill, Hinton and Sioux City suburbs of Springfield, Lynn and Leeda, flooded and many houses in this city, it is said, are surrounded by water. On the Iowa, the water is about 10 feet above the high water mark and at Hawarden, the water is reported five feet deep in the streets.

The North Western is said to have not a bridge left between Huron and Ia. Hawarden. The company still has a train, but is rumored to be breaking a gauge on Onawalka, some distance further down.

TISSUE OF FALSEHOOD.

Jackson and Walling Repudiate Their Confessions—Never Heard of Dr. Wager until the Trials.

Newport, Ky., March 20.—Scott Jackson has repudiated and denied his confession.

Hardy had that signed statement left the Alexandria jail by special messenger on his way to Gov. Bradley before the doomed man who wrote it, pacing the cell which he was to leave for the scene of his execution, was once again protesting his innocence of Pearl Bryan's murder, and crying about his lamentations for the mistake which he had made.

It was an extraordinary and dramatic scene.

His sister, Mrs. Edwin Post, of Greenup, who was with him at the time, was the authority for the statement which follow.

Jackson and his sister were told by the records of the confession just made by the condemned man, and Mrs. Post did not at that time, nor until she read it in the paper, know that her brother, over his own signature, had branded himself a murderer in the laws of Kentucky. She did not know what story he had told of the fatal night.

Suddenly Jackson, turning upon Mrs. Post, cried out: "I have made a mistake, an awful terrible mistake." "What have you done, Scott?" she asked.

"I have sent Gov. Bradley a false story to have written to him that I knew how Pearl Bryan died, and I gave him the details, but they are false."

"Was not your story the truth?" exclaimed Jackson. "No, I did not realize until now what I have done. I am sorry, and I am very sorry, I have been driven almost to confess by those whom I thought were my friends, who have urged me to confess that I killed her. They said I must do it, and I reluctantly agreed to confess unless some entirely new statement was made."

"They spoke to me about Dr. Wagner, I have written to him that I knew how Pearl Bryan died, and I gave him the details, but they are false."

"The truth!" exclaimed Jackson. "No, I did not realize until now what I have done. I am sorry, and I am very sorry, I have been driven almost to confess by those whom I thought were my friends, who have urged me to confess that I killed her. They said I must do it, and I reluctantly agreed to confess unless some entirely new statement was made."

They said I must do it, and I reluctantly agreed to confess unless some entirely new statement was made."

"They spoke to me about Dr. Wagner, and he said he was in a hurry to get to the trial, and I did not realize until now what I have done. I am sorry, and I am very sorry, I have been driven almost to confess by those whom I thought were my friends, who have urged me to confess that I killed her. They said I must do it, and I reluctantly agreed to confess unless some entirely new statement was made."
